IV. New Business

A. Review General Development Plan

The State of Michigan requires planning commissioners to review the Township General Development Plan at least every five years.

At this time L. Miller and J. Hammond see no need to change the Township General Development Plan or make amendments. They do not feel that it is outdated.

There was a discussion regarding the Township General Development Plan among the commissioners.

It was discussed that Les Houck, the Township Building Inspector, will update the General Development Plan Map, Sanitary Sewer Map, Water System Map, Public Act 116 Lands Map, and the Location Map.

All Planning Commissioners agreed that the General Development Plan is up to date only the maps need to be updated.

A motion was made by J. Hurt and seconded by T. Paige for L. Houck to update all the maps found in the Township General Development Plan. No other revisions need to be made at this time.
